

I am a resident of New Jersey and I do not want the FCC to interfere with our state's telemarketing law. Getting unsolicited telephone calls is an invasion of our privacy and causes us to lose time in our busy day that we can not afford to lose. I do not see any justification for the FCC interfering with our state's law in this case.